

Joint ICTSD/FES Roundtable on Agriculture and Sustainable Development – Towards Development-Oriented Agriculture Policies: Reframing the Debate at the WTO

World Meteorological Organisation (WMO), Geneva, 2 December 2002

Programme

Morning: (consultation with trade negotiators and government representatives)

09h00 - 09h15 Introductory remarks by organisers: objectives and purpose

09h15 - 10h15

Isabelle MAMATY, independent consultant (Congo): "Ensuring food security through agriculture trade"

Prof. Olatunji AKANDE, NISER (Nigeria): "Making agri-trade work for rural development"

Santiago PERRY, FPSDCSF (Colombia): "Reconciling farm trade and agro-biodiversity"

Prof. Dr. H. von WITZKE, Humboldt-University Berlin (Germany): "Promoting diversification through trade in agriculture"

10h15 - 10h45 Coffee/Tea

10h45 - 13h00 Open Discussion

13h00 - 14h30 Lunch

Afternoon: (discussion with experts and interested participants)

14h30 - 15h30 "Linking sustainable development objectives to agri-trade"

15h30 - 16h00 Coffee/tea

16h00 - 17h00 "Towards an integrated approach: windows for reform in the Doha agenda"

17h00 - 17h30 Closing remarks

Responsible : Alex WERTH, ICTSD