

Recent Research on Piracy and IP Enforcement
In Developing Countries:
Issues and Lessons

Tuesday 3rd November 2009

13:15-15:00

WIPO

Room B

-

The aim of the dialogue is to present the findings of recent research on piracy and intellectual property (IP) enforcement in a number of developing countries and consider their possible implications for international discussions on IP enforcement.

Programme

Introduction

Pedro Roffe, ICTSD

Speakers

Joe Karaganis, Social Science Research Council (SSRC), New York

Pedro Mizukami, Fundação Getulio Vargas (FGV), Rio de Janeiro

Oona Castro, Instituto Overmundo, Brazil

Commentator

Rodrigo Araujo, Ministry of External Relations, Brazil

Exchange of views with participants

A light lunch will be served.